Eight Will Run In Council Race

Filing closed yesterday at noon with eight candidates declaring their intention to run for city council April 13.

Going down to the wire at 11:55 a.m. yesterday, an eighth candidate filed his nomination papers.

He was John B. Drye, a bread company salesman, who lives at 148 Wilshire avenue in the Westlake subdivision.

Drye is active in church, being on the board of directors of the Westlake Community Baptist church. He is a World War II veteran and a member of the American Legion. The Dryes have three children. He has never run for public office before.

Earlier yesterday morning two of the incumbents, Anthony Gaggero and James Kennedy filed their papers, while the other councilman, Paul Green, filed Wednesday.

The four other candidates who will seek the three council positions up for election filed earlier this week.

They are: Owen D. English, Sanford G. Vickers, Del C. Wilson, and Michael De Bernardi.

Other than the incumbents, only DeBernardi and Wilson have ever run for public office before.

The three incumbents will run on a single ticket, while the other five candidates will run independently.

At the last municipal election, 1952, there was an identical number of candidates running. However, that time the "team" strategy was more popular, with three tickets of two being presented, while two men ran as independents.

For political platforms, as advanced by the council candidates this week, see page 2 of THE RECORD.

This newspaper will attempt to bring its readers a weekly resume of activities on the political scene.

THE TOWN RECORD

By MONTE DAYTON

Street scene: Have you seen the little lady who walks the DC thoroughfares with a nonchalant air and picks up blades of grass?

No, she's not on a commission basis for the city street department. Raises rabbits, or sumthin like that.

WALT GILLIES, local rec commissioner, says chances look good for a Daly City night at Seals Stadium this coming season.

He's planning to confer further with WALTER MAILS on this matter.

Mails, a keen publicist, is probably counting in his head Daly City's recent population count. Could be a good percentage of them are fans, he probably thinks. Anyway, it'll be a good thing for Daly City and the Seals.

JOAN JOBSON, former secretary at the community center, has left her post to serve with the PT&T in San Francisco.

SGT. BILL BOLGER, a 20-yearman with the Daly City PD, is no longer at his customary cubicle at the city hall. He's now stationed at the new water office on Mission street, where he's kept busy with the intricacies of city business licenses and sech.

FRED BRICKER, just recently spliced to BARBARA NICHOLAS, is back in service with THE RECORD again. He'll work as an apprentice floorman in the composing room.

GIRL FAINTS AT JEFF: SUFFERS FRACTURED JAW

A 16-year-old Jefferson high school girl suffered a fractured jaw and cuts about the mouth yesterday (Thursday) when she fell from the front steps of the high school after fainting.

Barbara Damele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Damele, 309 Westlake avenue, was going up the steps of the school yesterday at about noon when she fainted, falling to the bottom of the concrete steps.

Attendants at Junipero Serra hospital said the girl had three or four lacerations inside and outside the mouth, a fractured jaw, and had three teeth knocked out.

She told hospital authorities that she had suffered a "dizzy spell."

Seek Tightening Of Cop Entrance Exams

At a recent meeting between the city administrator, police commission and the civil service board of review, it was agreed that mental and physical examinations for Daly City police officers should be stiffened.

Discussion was also held on the possibility of employing psychiatric tests in the examinations for police personnel. Andersen said, however, that the city budget wouldn't allow it this year.

The group also decided to develop a new examination for police officers.

"Although the past physical and mental examinations have been adequate," Andersen said, "there was some latitude in meeting the requirements.

"With manpower easier to obtain now, we believe we should maintain the 'letter of the law more strictly'."

The study group also agreed on the new program for requiring new officers to attend a five-week peace officers training course.

The requirements will commence March 22 when Daly City's two new officers enroll at the school.

Cemetery Workers Continue To Picket

The number of unburied dead in San Mateo county continued to mount today as the strike between AFL Cemetery Workers and the cemeteries continued with little chance of an early settlement.

Meanwhile, throughout San Mateo county, the rate of unburied dead was rising at the rate of ten to twenty-five per cent a day in funeral chapels. The strike will not effect funeral services, but burial and graveside rites will be postponed until the strike is settled. Union members are picketing before all major cemetery entrances.

Only one cemetery, Serbian Memorial park, remains open. They have agreed to abide by any agreement reached by the negotiating groups.

Union members have been asking for a $2.50 a day increase, but union officials have indicated they would consider arbitration at a lesser figure.

CITY TO AWARD CONTRACT FOR STREET SWEEPER

The city council will award a bid Monday night for purchase of a new city street sweeper.

An examination of the machines offered by the two lowest bidders was held Wednesday by the council.

Contract will probably go to one of the following two companies: Wayne company, $10,269.10; Elgin company, $11,031.30.

City Administrator Dan Andersen said he would recommend the Wayne vehicle be purchased, since they will cut their price $200 if the city pays cash within 30 days. This would cut the total cost to $10,690.10.

The sweepers are three-cubic yard, dual control type.

At present, the sweeping is done by a vehicle in use for 14 years.

John, Robert Botti Win Stay Of Plea

A continuance of two weeks before entering a plea on the charges of receiving stolen property was granted to John and Robert Botti, Colma hog raisers, in Judge Thomas Bocci's court this week.

The two men are charged with receiving 71 stolen hogs in a complaint signed by Sheriff's Inspector Frank Marlowe. The hogs were reported stolen on January 10.

Frank Blum is the attorney for the defendants.

COUNCILMAN'S CAR HITS CHILD

A one-year-old infant that received a fractured arm and numerous bruises Monday when a car driven by J. Paul Green, Daly City councilmen, backed into her.

Police said Green, of 368 Northgate avenue, was backing out of his driveway at 10 a.m. Monday when his auto struck Diane Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Hansen, 360 Northgate avenue.

Green said he had just been conversing with the girl's father and started to leave the driveway when he heard the child scream.

The child was taken to Junipero Serra hospital, where attendants treated her for a fractured right arm, cuts, bruises and shock. She was later transferred to Stanford hospital.

Process Server Says Beat Up By DC Man

A San Francisco process server is preparing to file a complaint against a Daly City citizen who,he says, assaulted him when he attempted to serve a summons.

Roy A. Singley Jr., 24, who is employed with the attorney's messenger service, said he was "beaten about the face" by Michael A. McGovern, 32, of 142 Westbrook avenue, Sunday evening when he tried to serve McGovern a summons.

McGovern refused to accept the process, and allegedly struck the server several times, a police report said.

Singley was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for cuts and bruises about the mouth.

THERE'S WOE IN INDIAN CAMP

IF THERE'D been more like this one Tuesday, the Jefferson Union High school varsity basketball team might have snared their second straight Peninsula Athletic league championship. Meeting Capuchino high here in a play-off for the crown, the Daly City team got dumped, 56 to 45. High scoring Forward Don Delbon is shown here pushing one through in the game with Capuchino two weeks ago, which the Jeffs won to give them a tie for the PAL championship. Delbon netted 19 Tuesday to win high point honors.

OK Independent Post Office Here

NEW POLICE QUARTERS TO BE READY IN WEEK

The Daly City police department will take over its new offices within a week, it was announced today.

The police expansion program was brought about to make space for the rapidly-growing department.

The city water office, formerly located in the east side of the city hall, has been moved to 6434 Mission street, as has office of the building inspector.

Under the new set-up, the police will occupy the entire eastern section of the city hall.

Formerly, the police operated from an 18 ft. by 20 ft. spot in the corner of the building, while the chief had an office of 10 square feet.

Dan Andersen, city administrator, said he would negotiate to purchase furnishings for the new quarters this week.

Total cost of the expansion program is estimated at $2000.

The new establishment will allow maintenance of eight separate departments for the police operation. It is expected that the move will increase the efficiency of the department and make it easier to deal with cases of varying nature.

Daly City's long-sought for independent post office appeared near reality today.

Congressman J. Arthur Younger of San Mtaeo county this week notified Daly City officials that the post office would be established shortly.

Younger sent a copy of a letter he had received from N. R. Abrams, assistant postmaster general, which declared that the postal department was now ready to determine the service needs of the new post office. This will include such items as the number of clerks, mailmen and type of facilities to be utilized.

Abrams visited Daly City on an inspection tour last year on invitation of the Chamber of Commerce. At that time he said chances for Daly City securing its own post office appeared favorable. However, no further details on the status of the post office was heard until this week.

Younger's announcement was greeted with enthusiasm by Robert Hunter and Peter Markovich, president and secretary, respectively, of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce.

Hunter said the Chamber appreciated the action by Congressman Younger in representing the city in the fight to secure the post office. "Younger took a personal interest in our problem and brought the assistant postmaster general to Daly City to see the situation, and I feel that he was instrumental in getting this post office," Hunter declared.

For years mail from Daly City has been handled by a branch of the San Francisco post office. Having a post office will give the community its own identity of a local post mark and better service is also expected to result from the move.

Official announcement of the date on which the independent post office will go into effect will be made as soon as the postal department determines what additional facilities and personnel will be needed here.

Parking Big Problem For $10,000 Tourney

Parking was the big problem this week in planning for the lavish $10,000 open golf tournament to be held at the Lake Merced Golf and Country club in Daly City April 30, May 1 and 2.

Bill Kennedy, representing Daly City, host city for the mammoth links tourney, said the local police department "is giving full support," to the event.

At present, club officials have arranged to acquire space for parking 3500 vehicles. Henry Doelger said he will clear one of his lumber yards to make room for about 1000 cars. Angle parking is to be allowed on Junipero Serra and will accommodate another 1000 autos, Kennedy said.

The remaining 1500 will be routed to private parking lots which are to be provided.

Even at that, it will be cutting things pretty close. Kennedy said he expects 20,000 persons a day to attend the tourney, which will feature such name players Ben Hogan, Gene Littler, Dr. Cary Middlecof, Dutch Harrison and Byron Nelson.

Figuring four persons to a vehicle, 3500 cars is probably a conservative estimate of the number that will motor to the big sports event.

Kennedy announced this week that qualifying for amateurs who wish to enter the tournament will be held on a Tuesday in April, yet to be designated. Those eligible will be players with handicaps of 8 or less in the blue-book rating. The qualifying will be held at a course other than Lake Merced.

$150 Fine For Man Found Guilty On Drunk Driving Count

William Cloonan, 36, of 111 Village Lane, Broadmoor, was found guilty of driving while intoxicated this week and fined $150 by Judge Thomas L. Bocci in municipal court.

ARCHITECTURE OF LOCAL CENTER IS IN SELECT GROUP

Daly City's community center is in fast company, architecturally speaking.

Charles Pope, administrative division director and preservation officer of the northern California chapter of the American Institute of Architects, has listed the local center as one of the 30 most noteworthy examples of architecture in the Bay Area.

His selection was made in response to the appeals of local tourists agencies and booksellers for more information on outstanding buildings and homes in the area.

Included among the 30 are such structures as the Ferry Building, Palace of Fine Arts and the Opera House, to mention a few of the more outstanding.

Pope said his judgment was based on the three principal reasons for the preservation of any building: The intrinsic aesthetic value: usefulness in the landscape; and grounds for appeal—that of pietas. He explained the latter latin word of great significance than the English equivalent.

"To me the Latin word means emotion widely diffused, aesthetic and comprehensible only in the light of the citizenry's full consciousness of their past."

YOUTHS HELD IN L.A. CONFESS TO HOLD-UP OF LOCAL GROCERY

Three youths being held by Los Angeles police for investigation on a series of armed robberies there this week confessed to the hold-up of the Vista Grande grocery, 201 Vista Grande avenue, on February 8.

Word was received from police in Los Angeles yesterday that the trio had admitted the Daly City robbery.

Confessing to the crime were: Albert J. Woodworth, Richard Rolley and Anthony All.

Woodworth was said to be driver of the getaway car, while the other two youths forced the proprietor of the store at gun-point to turn over $67 in receipts.

BURGLARS GET $241 IN HILLTOP MARKET BREAK-IN

Dropping in from the roof of the building, burglars broke in to the Hillton Market Sunday, taking $241 from the store.

Method used was similar with that of a trio of burglaries on Mission street last month.

Burnt papers, which had been used as torches to illuminate the job, were found near the area. The same method of operation was used in the earlier Mjssion street break-ins.

Police said the culprits bored a hole in a roof, after reaching the top of the building through a hole in the rear fence of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church yard. They then cut through the ceiling and dropped to the floor.

A total of $41 was taken from the cash register, after which the burglars broke into the meat department refrigerator, getting $200. Nine cartons of cigarettes were also taken, reported owner George Glass.

Mike Bertolucci, owner of the meat department, said the money taken from the refrigerator was in four bags, containing $50 apiece.

No attempt was made to break into the cement encased safe.

Police said the incident occurred sometime Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

Faulty Wiring In TV Causes Smoke Scare

Faulty wiring in a TV set did minor damage at the home of Mrs. G. Weible, 131 Wyandotte, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Weible huriredly sent her three children into the basement when smoke began to fill the room, and no one was injured.

She then bodily carried the smoking TV set outside, at which time firemen arrived to clean up the place.

Damage was only minor, Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy said.

DALY CITY'S LATEST IN FIRE FIGHTING EQUIPMENT

LOOKING PLEASED as punch, Daly City firemen pose beside the newest Daly City engine, recently delivered to the Santa Barbara firehouse. The Seagraves machine holds 406 gallons of water and has a 1000-gallon pump. Four ladders, of 35, 24, 14 and 10 foot length, are carried on the modern piece of fire-fighting equipment. Total cost of the engine was $17,300, plus $4060 for additional equipment. A 65-foot aerial is due to arrive this month. specifications and men and equipment are set to proceed with work on the $25,000 building immediately.

The clubhouse, to be located in the proposed park site in that area, will be donated by Henry Doelger.

At Monday night's recreation commission meeting, discussion was held on the clubhouse and park.

The commissioners considered acquiring furnishings for the clubhouse and also talked about the hiring of a supervisor.

However, these matters were held up until completion of the building nears.

The commission decided they would seek to have the city allocate about $25,000 to begin work on the park. This would take care of about half the work, since total cost is estimated at $45,000.

In other action Monday, the commission:

1. Discussed the acquisition of Thornton beach as a ctiy park. No definite action was taken.

2. Approved request of Westlake Post 535, American Legion, to use the Daly City community center as site for installation of officers.

3. Gave the Foster & Kleiser firm permission to install a bill board at the north side of the community center ramp. It will be used for promoting only state and city activities and charity drives.

4. Considered the moving of the backstop at Frankfort park to Westlake or Marchbanks park.

5. Discussed the coming Easter egg hunt and spring festival.

ANDERSEN SAYS MANY GOOD IDEAS AT CONFERENCE

Dan Andersen, Daly City administrator, returned last weekend from the annual conference of city managers in Santa Monica.

Andersen said matters of prime importance to Daly City, planning, subdivisions, employees fringe benefits and relations, were taken up.

"Many of the ideas advanced at the meeting can be put in practice here," Andersen said.

"Uniformity of subdivisions ordinance throughout the state was discussed," he said. "Daly City is currently drafting such an ordinance which appears ideal in light of discussion held at the conference."

Korean GI Bill Vets Who Vacation Will Get Checks On Time

Korean GI Bill veteran-students who go home for vacations or between-term school breaks will be sure to get their GI allowance checks on time, under a new system announced today by the Veterans Administration.

VA said it will follow its new speed-up policy only during all breaks in school which extend past the end of a month, and which normally would cause delays in receipt of GI checks. Such breaks include spring, summer and winter vacations, Christmas and Easter holidays, time off between semesters, and the like.

Under the new system, VA will allow a veteran-trainee to fill out his monthly certification of training—a form required by law—on his last day of school attendance, rather than after the end of the month, when it's normally due.

These certifications, signed both by the veteran and an official of his school, must be received by VA before checks may be sent out.

By permitting a veteran to complete the form ahead of time, VA virtually has done away with any chance of a delay.

VA explained that a veteran who goes home for a vacation stretching past the first of the month obviously would not be available to sign his certification at the proper time. If it were not for the new procedure, he'd have to wait until he returned to school to sign it. As a result, his check would be late.

By signing before he leaves, the veteran is assured that the certification will reach VA on time, eliminating the possibility of a late allowance check.

This same principle will apply in the case of a veteran who finishes his final examinations, and who leaves school before the official end of the term. He, too, will be permitted to fill out the certification on his last day in class.

Map '54 Campaign For Seal Drive

Campaign plans for the 1954 Easter Seal Drive which seeks to raise $50,000 in San Mateo county to aid crippled children and adults, were outlined at the first committee meeting held this week at the home of Mrs. Richard Heimann, Hillsborough, president of the county unit.

The afternoon session was called to organize the speakers bureau for the forthcoming fund raising effort with Carl Anderson, Burlingame attorney, acting as chairman.

In his remarks to the more than 20 volunteers in attendance, Anderson stressed the importance for Easter Seal representatives in their appearances before civic groups to underscore the importance of what he termed "one dollar support." Anderson said that if every recipient of the familiar and colorful block of seals would mail a dollar to the society in the addressed envelope accompanying each seal letter than this year's fund goal could be reached quickly with minimum expense to individual contributors.

Mrs. Heimann said increased funds are needed to meet the costs of the society's expanding service to local handicapped youngsters and adults.

LAW IN ACTION

WRITE A LETTER TO YOUR HEIRS

You should, of course, leave a will so your wishes for those you care for may be carried out after your death. For our courts will then see to it that your wishes are put into effect.

But a lawyer who has been reading these columns called in the other day to suggest that a will is not enough: You should leave as well a letter to your wife, husband, children, executor, or close friend. In it give facts and advice about your affairs to help your heirs.

Your last letter should answer some of these questions:

Where is your will? In a safety deposit box? At your office? Or tucked away someplace for safekeeping? You might have hidden it so that nobody can find it. It might be destroyed by accident. Your will is no good unless you tell someone where to find it.

Who is your executor—the person or institution you want to carry out your will? Whom do you deal with at the bank? Whom do you look to for sound business advice?

You might have in mind a lawyer to take care of your estate. Write down his name, address, and telephone number.

Where do you bank? Some persons have a savings account in one bank and a checking account in another. Where are your safety deposit boxes? Do you keep important papers in other places? List these places.

Note these subjects: Old age and survivors' insurance, pensions, profit-sharing plans, group insurance, club memberships, royalties, estates and trusts, and joint ventures. Put down your social security number.

These are just a few things to cover in the letter you leave. There are others. Let's take them up in the next column.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

SCIENTISTS TO HEAR SERMON ON "MAN" SUNDAY

That permanent peace and harmony are within the reach of mankind through the spiritual growth that reveals the true, spiritual nature of man in God's likeness will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" which will be read at Christian Science services Sunday at the Sharp Park Christian Science church, beginning at 11 a.m.

Selections from the King James Version of the Bible include this citation from Romans: "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (8:28).

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite—in order that sin and mortality may be put off.

"This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace" (265:1-15).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace" (37:37).

The sheltered workshop which the society maintains on the Mills Estate in Burlingame provides activity and part-time work for dozens of adults whose need for social contact might otherwise be neglected.

The Outdoors

Shot In Arm

SACRAMENTO—A shot in the arm for a potentially fine salmon stream will be administered this spring, when employees of the California Department of Fish and Game plant 2,000,000 king salmon fingerlings in the Mokelumne river above Lodi, San Joaquin county.

The fingerlings are being supplied through the cooperation of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, which has a surplus at its Coleman hatchery in Shasta county.

The State biologists hope that by introducing the young salmon into the river, they will lay the foundation for the return of the good salmon runs which the Mokelumne once supported. Pollution from wineries, and an inadequate fishway over the Woodbridge Dam below Lodi, have spoiled the stream's salmon run in past years.

Now the pollution is virtually cleared up, and present negotiations indicate that a good fishway will be in place by the time the survivors of this spring's "transfusion" complete their cycle of migration to the ocean and return to lay their eggs.

With completion of the fishway, the natural run in time would build up to the full 60,000 fish which the Mokelumne's spawning beds can accommodate. But if this spring's experimental planting is successful, biologists estimate, that day can be hastened by as much as three or four years.

Expensive Quail

WILLITS, Mendocino county—Shooting quail in somebody else's barnyard proved expensive for Otto E. Poe of Fort Bragg. He was fined $100 by Judge Fred S. Foord, after pleading guilty to shooting too close to a barn on the John Strawberry ranch.

They Are Good

OAKLAND—Whether you call them moat hens, coots, negratas, water chickens, mudhens or ivory-bills, they're good eating if properly prepared, according to C. A. Rietz, food technologist at Mills College.

The term "mudhen," commonly used to describe the coot found in California's bays, waterways and irrigated fields, is not only undeserved but is inaccurate to boot, Rietz says. The term is a curruption of the medieval "moat hen," pinned on the birds which made castle moats their home.

As for the flavor of the meat, anyone who has eaten a properly prepared coot would not refer to it as a mudhen beyond the first taste.

The California Department of Fish and Game asked Rietz to give hunters some tips on coot cookery to help utilize the birds which are now legal targets in 26 California counties. An indefinite coot hunting period has been ordered by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service as a means of relieving serious crop damage in agricultural areas.

In the days when the poaching of moat hens was punishable by death, scullery specialists advised hanging the birds "long enough to be fit to eat." But Rietz, a graduate food technologist, recommends that all game be bled and eviscerated immediately after killing.

Coot cookery should embrace the same basic procedures as for other red meats, Rietz asserts, keeping in mind that the moat hen is free of fat. The old English recipe for jugged moat hens always included suet in the final dish.

And that centuries old receipt, considered a delicacy by contemporaries of King Arthur and his knights, is just as good today. But Rietz hesitates to pass along the formula in these days of automatic kitchens, as it involves from one to three days of preparation and cooking.

After one to three days in a marinade of ale or red wine, water, salt, bay leaves and other herbs, the disjointed coot was lightly browned in hot drippings, placed in meat stock and poured in the traditional jug. Three hours of simmering followed.

In later centuries, refinements were added to the jugged coot; sauces made of creamed butter and flour, and spices such as cloves and nutmeg, which were unknown in the early period. Forcemeat balls of veal or pork, prepared with chopped bacon and bread crumbs, were added to the jug about a half hour before the final serving.

STANDING ON OUR RIGHTS

The community center has practically everything now to accommodate vast crowds of people.

There's only one little catch—no place to sit.

Meanwhile, money is spent for sundry other facilities which will make the center bigger, better and more accommodating for the citizens.

At last count, there were some dozen chairs sprinkled about the spacious war memorial building.

Just barely enough room for the recreation commissioners to sit down and ponder where everybody else is going to sit.

We believe, of course, that all the work going into the building is necessary.

Far be it from us to stand in the way of progress.

But just how long does everybody have to stand?

A SIGH FOR THE TAXPAYERS

At last.

Somebody's come up with a method for reducing school building costs.

A list of recommendations was developed through a committee instituted by the county superintendent of schools and including officials of varied organizations throughout the county.

The chunk of tax money that the schools take out of John Q. Citizen's pocket continues to grow to gargantuan proportions.

For a while, it appeared that nothing could stop the snow-ball action caused by continued growth in enrollment and the ever-growing need for improved facilities. The work had to be done but the prospect of picking up the tab has continued to bring shudders to many a taxpayer.

If anything good comes of this group's recommendations for cutting school building costs, you might look forward to less taxes and at the same time, adequate school facilities.

Let's hope so.

A FINE EXAMPLE OF A POOR ROAD

We hear reports that something's about to be done about the condition of 90th street west of Junipero Serra boulevard adjacent to the theatre.

The road is so pitted, slipshod and generally lousy that not one, but as many as eight vehicles have had to be pulled out of the ditch in a single week's period.

The street is part of the city system, but since it was just annexed recently and is unimproved, an assessment district must be formed to bring about initial work on it. Once the property owners in the area take it upon themselves to improve the road, then it is up to the city to maintain it.

We gather there was talk of forming the district two years ago, even before the area was annexed.

It would behoove the property owners in the area to snap to it and get the ugly and dangerous thoroughfare in shape.

Sheer business sense alone would seem to warrant improving the road. The only enterprise that stands to lose anything are the tow trucks that make the weekly hauls out of the ditch.

To all concerned: Let's get with it.

RED CROSS IS MONEY WELL SPENT

The generous helping hand of the San Mateo county chapter of the American Red Cross, which each day throughout our county offers aid to hundreds of families, now needs the help of the residents of this area.

It needs help to give help.

Last fall the local chapter joined with other publicly supported agencies in the United Fund drive. Volunteers and staff members put their shoulder to the wheel in a cooperative effort to make a success of the 'Give Once For All' campaign for the participating organizations.

To maintain its operation the San Mateo county chapter of the American Red Cross set a budget goal of $134,605.

The drive met 78 per cent of that total, leaving an additional $29,000 to be obtained independently by the Red Cross. The only alternative is a reduction of service.

Each year, nationally and locally, the month of March traditionally has been set aside for the fund drive of the American Red Cross. This year, volunteer workers will endeavor to make up the $29,000 deficit here.

If only 29,000 residents of this area so vitally served by the chapter respond with only one dollar each, the goal is well met. That is not much to ask in return for the work done by the organization in our city and county.

The Red Cross is not an agency reserved for service in times of major disaster affecting great masses of people . . . although under such conditions it does its humanitarian work, spectacularly.

. . . It is an agency which each day helps hundreds of families, right here at home to meet their own individual crisis. And, it is that work which many of us know so little of.

Anyone, faced with a personal emergency can call on the Red Cross at any time of the day or night to get help.

Last year in the area served by the San Mateo county chapter, some 222 needy families of servicemen and veterans received direct financial aid.

Through its home service division, the Red Cross counselled and helped 4,307 men and women.

Its production department of 744 local volunteers, men and women, knitted and sewed articles of clothing, outfits for children, layettes for infants, garments for adults. The Red Cross needs funds with which to buy the material of which these things are made by so many willing hands and which mean so much to so many.

Among its better known activities, the Red Cross service includes the Gray Ladies, nurse's aides. Its nursing service division each year trains hundreds of women and high school girls in home care of the sick. Besides giving immediate assistance to affected families, such a course assures an adequate supply of trained people in times of emergency. It raises the standard of community and family health. This, too, is true of the mother and baby care classes. A total of 210 young expectant couples enrolled in these classes last year.

And further, the Red Cross here sponsors an arts and skill section providing instructors to teach handicrafts to the handicapped. How many hours of happiness this has brought into distressed lives, no statistics can tell.

Last year, also, the widely recognized water safety program enrolled 9,631 swimmers—young people whose lives will be protected. . . . How many tragedies such training averts, again no statistics can ever tell.

Suffice to say, that even such a cursory summary of the work of the American Red Cross right here at home, gives ample proof that the funds collected for its support, is money well spent in the protection of the health, welfare and happiness of the people of this county.

JEFF ELEMENTARY SCHOOL BOARD HAS BUSY MEETING

(Ed. note: The following is a resume of the recent Jefferson Elementary School district board of trustees:)

Vance M. Brown and Sons, General Contractors of Palo Alto were awarded the contract for the construction of the Olympia School in Westlake at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School District on February 25. Bids had been opened on February 18 and held under advisement pending a meeting of the entire Board. The contract price of $218,050 is considered attractive in view of the fact the building will be durable concrete construction. Although not included in the price the contractors have agreed to use the lift slab type of construction to obtain the advantage of time saved in the erection of the building by the hydraulic jack method.

The Board approved construction of the Colma lower grade school at Hillside and Market street in view of the increasing population in the area. Bids will likely be opened in thirty to forty five days since plans for the building have been approved by the State Division of Architecture. The building will consist of ten classrooms and an administration unit. The construction of this project will not delay the construction of the Vista Grande School on Thiers and Lausanne Streets which is so sorely needed to care for children residing in the Woodrow Wilson school area.

The Fay Improvement Company was awarded a contract for paving a portion of Chester street fronting the Colma school property. A low bid of $2,177.50 won the contract, with the Douglas and Woodhouse Company submitting a bid of $2,192.70.

A letter from the County Superintendent was read advising the Board that in the May 21 Trustee Election the candidates must declare whether they are filing for the incumbent three-year position or one of the two additional positions. In the latter the elected board member receiving the highest number of votes will be awarded a two-year term and the member receiving the lesser number of votes will be awarded a one-year term.

The Board awarded a four year contract to H. Z. Weibel, District Superintendent, to become effective July 1, 1954. Approval was given for attendance at the State and National Supervisors Conference by Fred Schweickhardt. Director of Education, Louine Bostwick, Curriculum Coordinator, and Eleanor Zenovich, Principal of Westlake School. The conference will be held in Los Angeles, March 7-12.

Approval was given for holding the eighth grade commencement programs in the Daly City Theater in June. The availability of the theater with its 1400 seats will more nearly accommodate all who wish to attend than other auditoriums in the community.

The Board approved a community survey to determine how parents feel about the elementary school system. The survey is in the form of a confidential questionnaire that has been devised by the administrative staff and patterned after a survey developed by a research group financed by the Kellog Foundation. The basic purpose of the survey is to obtain the best schools possible in the District. The survey will be conducted the latter part of March.

A policy was adopted by the Board whereby newly hired teachers will no longer be paid two months salary in advance as has been the custom in the past and has resulted in hardship for teachers who found it necessary to resign soon after the school term started. The new method of payment will be made optional to teachers who have taught in the District for some time.

A report on the American School Boards Association conference in New Jersey was presented by Andrew Van Der Werff, board member who attended. A report on the convention of the American Association of School Administrators was given by Superintendent Weibel.

Following adjournment of the meeting Trustees Callan and Cheatham conducted a spirited discussion with the visitors present on pupil classification, courses of study and the general philosophy of education.

D C Council Candidates Announce Platforms

(Ed. Note: Found here are the platforms of seven of the candidates, as forwarded to this newspaper. We will attempt each week to give the readers a fair run down on the council race. Amount of material from each candidate may be restricted due to space, limitations. Candidates running as a team will be considered as one candidate for the purposes of publicity. All campaign material must be in this office by 12 noon, Tuesday, and must be typed and double-spaced. THE RECORD maintains an impartial stand in the coming election. However, we cannot be declared responsible for omitting campaign material when it does not meet the above requirements.

INCUMBENTS SAY CONTINUE WITH CITY PROGRESS

Filing their candidacy on a continued program of civic progress for Daly City, Mayor A. J. Gaggero and Councilmen Paul Green and Jim Kennedy announced today they would be running for election at the municipal election on Tuesday, April 13.

Gaggero will be seeking his fourth term on the council, and has a wide range of governmental experience behind him. In addition to city affairs he has been active in county activities for many years.

Green, who twice led the field in the council race, was first elected in 1946 while he was still in the Army. Entering the Army as a private in 1941, he rose to the rank of Major. A real estate broker, Green resides with his wife and four children at 368 Northgate avenue.

Scion of a pioneer Daly City family, Jim Kennedy was elected councilman in 1948 and since then has been an active sponsor of improvements to water system, fire system and an expanded recreation program. He lives at 6893 Mission street, with his wife and three children.

The three incumbent councilmen have attracted wide support throughout the city for their determined stand on progressive measures to improve the city. With several heavy projects under construction, Gaggero-Green-Kennedy backers have adopted the slogan, "To continue Daly City progress, keep progressive councilmen on the job."

Date For Income Tax Filing Not Extended

Because of the wide publicity concerning proposed legislation pending in Congress which proposes to change the date for filing income tax returns, many taxpayers seem to believe the date for filing 1953 income tax returns has been extended.

In order to clarify this situation Glen T. Jamison, District Director of Internal Revenue at San Francisco issued the following statement. "The last date for filing 1953 income tax returns is March 15, 1954. Envelopes containing returns must be postmarked not later than midnight on that day."

GOVERNMENT IS THE PEOPLE'S, VICKERS SAYS

More active participation in city government by the people was urged this week by candidate Sanford G. Vickers.

Summing up his stand in his campaign slogan, "Government is your business," Vickers said government had been "wrested from the hands of the people by a pompous and dictatorial attitude on the part of the incumbents."

Vickers, who has served on the Daly City planning commission as secretary since its beginning, is a locomotive engineer. He was formerly president of the Edgewood Hilside Terrace Improvement association.

The candidate also called for "a far-sighted program of planning and development for Daly City, the third largest city in the county. In my experience in zoning and planning matters I have found many of the city's actions and regulations have not been geared to the city's phenomenal growth."

Running for office for the first time, Vickers said, "Although I may be classed as an amateur in the world of politics, "I can assure the people of Daly City that I will use every resource and all energy at my command in working to cope with the many municipal problems. I believe hard work and community interest is an ample replacement for political experience."

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

At the moment of writing we are in the strange position of discussing the second half of the Cosmopolitan Opera Company's scheduled performances two days before the first note of the Opening Night overture has sounded. We have found this so confusing that before we go on to talk about next week's activities, we want to mention that Friday, March 5, they will present "Tosca" which contains one of our favorite operatic villains.

Tuesday, March 9, brings "Carmen" and Friday of next week the Company has planned a program to please the audience that enjoys a double feature. As an item of minor interest, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" were the very first operas we attended. We cannot recall why we chose them, and can only assume that it must have been the lure of two for the price of one. If the same reasoning appeals to you, March 12 will be your night at the opera.

Puccini is certainly being well represented as the final week will be devoted to his "La Boheme" and "Butterfly." If anyone were to ask us to name just one opera which we would recommend to someone just becoming interested in the art, we would unhesitatingly choose "Boheme." Not only does it possess the quality of reality which gives it a poignancy not found in some of the more melodramatic works, but we can truthfully say that we have never heard a bad "Boheme." We can remember a few poor "Traviata's" and one "Aida" that positively made us shudder, but every "Boheme" has been a gem.

The writer is of course aware that there is a possibility that there may not be a Cosmopolitan Opera Season. This is a most unhappy situation which we would not even mention if it were not for the fact that we have many times wondered just how important is scenery. We have long maintained that we would prefer to hear an unfamiliar opera sung against simple backdrops such as are used in many ballets, than never hear them at all. With the costs of producing new operas rising every year, we can see no other solution to the problem of restoring works like "Nabucco," "Boccanegra," "Trojans at Carthage" and "Norma" to the active repertoire.

Possibly we are oversimplifying a very complicated problem, but from where we sit in comparitive peace and seclusion it would appear that the situation which threatens to arise could very well be a challenge rather than a defeat.

It could be the greatest thing that has happened to opera since the invention of platform shoes for tenors.

OWEN ENGLISH GIVES NINE POINT PROGRAM

Candidate Owen D. English launched his initial nine-point platform this week, and called for rapid completion of all municipal projects now in progress.

Other points brought out by English were: Revision of annexation and zoning policies; industrialization and commercialization; improved streets, off street parking and traffic control; closer relations between public and city council; active participation in a county-wide smog control program; establish and support a "Monroe Doctrine" for San Mateo county; place more individual responsibility on members of the council; foster a cooperative attitude with fact finding groups of various civic-minded organizations.

English, a 30-year-old son of a former editor and publisher of a mid-western newspaper, is a metal worker in Colma.

His activities include membership in Holy Angels Holy Name society; Holy Angels Elementary School Dads' club past president; membership chairman of North End Democratic club; member Ironworker's Local No. 472.

TRANSPORTATION KEYNOTE OF WILSON CAMPAIGN

Del Wilson, local real estate appraiser, this week announced that inadequate transportation would command most of his campaign attention for the coming election.

"I promised improved transportation at the last election, and then the other candidates jumped on the band-wagon. However, after they got in office they seemed to forget all about their promises to the people," he said.

"Lack of adequate transportation stands out foremost in my mind as the first need of Daly City people."

Wilson was active in the recent drive to extend the No. 14 bus into Colma. Wilson says the move failed because of apathy on the part of the city council "and other officials who could have been instrumental."

In the last election, Wilson ran on a ticket with Thomas Tromborg.

At a later date he will elaborate on his stand on such matters as recreation, taxes, signals, commission government, fire department, parking facilities, schools, streets, and caucus meetings (study sessions).

DE BERNARDI SAYS CHAMBER DUE CREDIT FOR PO

Michael De Bernardi this week extended a vote of thanks to the Daly City Chamber of Commerce for getting firmly behind the post office issue "where the city council failed miserably."

"I was pleased and gratified when I learned this week that the efforts to establish an independent post office had been successful," he said.

"I had planned to launch a new drive to bring a post office here in my campaign for council. As you will recall back in April, 1952, I circulated the petition asking establishment of an independent post office here, and, along with a resolution to that effect by the city council, forwarded this request to Washington.

"Through exchanges of letters with the postmaster general I was told it would be taken under consideration at the earliest possible time.

"I have written to the postmaster general requesting additional information and will pass this on to you readers when I receive an answer."

California Library Week March 7-13

"Something for Everyone" is the slogan of this year's California Library Week, and certainly this brief phrase is synonymous with the public libraries. Books, old and new, magazines, pamphlets, pictures, newspapers, reference service, special story hours for boys and girls, all these services are yours for the asking at the public library in your community. Won't you observe California Library Week by coming in and seeing yourself that there certainly is "SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE" at your public library. The Daly City public library is open Monday through Fridays 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Daly City Library Participates In Book Fair

At the book fair given by the Catholic Daughter's of America, Court St. Mary, Mrs. Marion Garthwaite, author and children's librarian at the San Mateo County Library, was one of the guest speakers. Mrs. Garthwaite spoke on the subject of good home reading, and the great importance of fostering good reading for children and adults. Mrs. Garthwaite pointed out that good books are every child's cultural heritage, and that today with all the other media of communication and entainment there just isn't enough time for a child to waste on mediocre books. One of the best places to obtain good reading lists and guidance in selecting books for young people is the public library. The Daly City library staff was in charge of a display at the book fair which featured good books for home reading.

Dematteis Files For Re-election

On Tuesday, March 2, 1954, Judge Louis B. Dematteis filed his declaration of intention to be a candidate at the primary election to be held on June 8, 1954, for the office of Judge of the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Mateo, Department Number 4.

Judge Dematteis was appointed to the Superior Court of San Mateo county in September of 1953 by former Governor and present Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Earl Warren, and is presently serving in that position.

From July, 1949, to the time of his appointment to the Court, Judge Dematteis served as District Attorney of San Mateo County wherein he established a commendable record for the honest, impartial and efficient administration of that office.

Judge Dematteis has had many years of experience in public service and in the private practice of the law. He is a native of San Mateo county and is a graduate of local schools and the University of San Francisco. During World War II he served in the United States Navy.

Judge Dematteis has been active in numerous civic and fraternal organizations for many years and presently lives at 823 Blandford boulevard in Redwood City with his wife, Lillian, and five children.

In filing his declaration of intention, Judge Dematteis stated: "In submitting my candidacy for the office of Judge of the Superior Court which I presently occupy, I am mindful of the great responsibilities of the office, and if elected, I will continue to do my very best to serve all of the people of our county in an honest, impartial and capable manner."

Joseph Altieri Of Colma Appointed To Knight Campaign

Raymond J. Daba, chairman of the San Mateo county Knight-for-Governor campaign, today reported new appointments from this area to the bipartisan steering committee which is guiding campaign efforts throughout the county.

Daba said the following have been named to the policy making organization of the gubernatorial drive here: Edward Rottman, Louis Francis and Capt. Stewart C. Griswold of San Mateo; Edward Kauffman of South San Francisco; Joseph D. Altieri of Colma; Danny O. Dees of Millbrae; Carl W. Anderson of San Carlos; Dr. Byron Clyde Curry, Harvey Alan Tepfer and Charles W. Mickel of Redwood City; Brig. Gen. George A. Miller (ret.) and C. E. Ault of Menlo Park.

PRODUCTION CAPACITY

Based upon announced expansion programs, the production capacity of the nickel industry of the free world by 1960 should be at least 75 per cent greater than that existing in 1949, the year prior to the start of the Korean conflict, when production of nickel totalled about 265,000,000 pounds.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Here it is the first week in March and February certainly was a beautiful month as far as the weather was concerned. Lent is with us again and this time of the year has its own particular meaning for all of us. It is a time given to us to make each and everyone of us stop and think. There will be services in many of the churches all the six weeks leading up to Easter Sunday. For the hope in the future of all of us let us all contemplate each in his own way on the hope of permanent peace in the world.

Would you like an opportunity to participate in the great work of charity by helping others at no cost to yourselves? It's very simple; GENERAL MILLS offers you this opportunity. All you have to do is to save the GOLD MEDAL CERTIFICATES that are in each sack of GOLD MEDAL FLOUR that's marked "FRIENDSHIP FUND." The idea behind the friendship fund is to aid worthy causes. Therefore the certificates can only be redeemed by an organization. They have no value to an individual, but collectively they can be a great asset to the ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church. This organization of the men of the parish do a wonderful work and it would be a shame to see these certificates wasted when they could be put to such good use. You can hand your certificates to the ushers at the Church or deposit them with the HILLTOP FOOD MARKET or if any information is wanted just call JOHN MULLER who is chairman of this project. Remember—the more Gold Medal certificates you collect, the larger your contribution will be to a most worthy cause.

How would you like to have a birthday and not have a day to celebrate it on? Well that is the problem of BILL BRUSH JR. of Niantic avenue. Seems Bill just had to pick Feb. 29th in a leap year to enter the world. Nevertheless Bill who was 18 was given a nice birthday dinner attended by his family and friends. Happy birthday, Bill, and in a few years your real day will come around again.

Items of Interest

Saw MRS. MARY CONTI up the hill the other day and she was all excitement. She gave me the news that MR. and MRS. ROY CAMILLO (Mary's son), just made her a grandmother for the eleventh time. The young lady was born last week and checked in at over 7 lbs. She has been named JEANNE LOUISE and was happily welcomed home by her older sister little MARIE CHRISTINE. Congratulations kids on the newest members of the Camillo family.

Birthday parties were not confined to the younger generation last week. MR. SYL CRUZ SR. of Mission street was given a surprise party on his arrival home from work. There to help Syl celebrate and join in all the fun were all the members of his family and a host of his friends. The only absent members was SYL JR. who just couldn't make it. Korea is a little to far away. Happy birthday from all the neighbors too, Syl.

Had a letter from Amarillo, Texas (such a place!) the other day. DAVID ALLEN BRUSH, son of JIM & ALLEEN BRUSH of Los Banos avenue and the U. S. Air Force was christened on Feb. 14th. He was christened by proxy with his father Jim and Miss Pat Ray standing for his godparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brush of Los Banos avenue. One consolling thought—David may have been born in Texas but he won't always have to live there as enlistments do eventually come to an end and then he can come home to our town. Until then best wishes kids, and we'll be seeing you.

One and all are very glad to hear that MISS SHARON CASAD of Flournoy street is now on the up and around list after a bout with a very nasty appendix. Sharon is still at home but should be able to return to her classes and friends at Jeff soon. Glad to see you up and around again Sharon and hope you stay well now.

This is the spring of the year and at that time there always seems to be a lot of fish stories floating around. One of the best yet was told by one of the Los Banos avenue neighbors. Seems he was fishing on the rocks in the ocean for perch and he lassoed one. That's right LASSOED is what he did. He threw in his line which got tangled and when he pulled it up there was a fish caught in the loop of line with the line under the gills. Believe it or not! This is the first of many such stories—can anyone top it?

Servicemen

Seaman THOMAS McCARTHY of the U. S. Coast Guard was heard from this week. Tom has been assigned to the U. S. C. G. Cutter Balsam which operates out of Eureka. That seems pretty close to home but not close enough for Tom. He doesn't always get into port on the weekends and as he is anxiously awaiting the status of a papa he would really like to be nearer.

One of the boys who does get home each night to the envy of all the rest of his friends in the service is Seaman ROBERT ROSE of the U. S. Coast Guard. Bob is stationed at Government Island across the bay and is in charge of all the new fellows who enter as boots to help guard our coast line. Bob is waiting any day for the word of his awaited heir. I sure hope it happens real soon or Bob will never make it.

P.F.C. RONNIE SPECHT of the U. S. Marines was heard from this week. He writes that Korea is still Korea and he can't get home son enough to suit him. Ronnie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Specht of Guadalupe avenue and will be remembered by many of the fellows at Jeff most of whom are also in the service in one branch or another.

PVT. GEORGE CONSTANTIN is one happy guy. Although in Pusan, Korea, he is now a full-fledged member of the bakers crew. When not doing all the baking for his outfit George spends his leisure time hunting. The last picture he sent home proved it as he had a nice bag of pheasants for the day. Even with all his extra activities George would much rather be home and just go for a ride with his wife Jackie. Be patient George, it won't last forever.

SGT. TONY HENSELY of the U. S. Air Forces is making the most of the last few days of his furlough. He leaves soon for duty with the Air Forces on Okinowa and will be gone at least 18 months. After he is there awhile he is going to send for Mary and the baby so it will be a long time before we see the Henselys again. Just don't forget to write kids, all your friends will like to hear how you are doing and this is the way they can find out.

Well, as has happend so many times before my good friend A/2c HAROLD "SKIP" AMES didn't make it. Had a phone call from him last week and he gave me his APO address just in case he didn't get time off to come and see me before shipping out. Good thing as that is the last word from him and I guess it will be awhile before he gets to write me from Japan which will be his new address. Skip will be serving as a radio operator for the Air Force while overseas and all the best wishes of the neighbors are going with him. Write soon, Skip, we will be waiting to hear from you.

News and Views

Well, well, well! The end of the trail has just about been reached for the WANDERING HARLANS, Foofie and Bud. They have left Picture Rock, Arizona and gone through Las Vegas, Nevada on their way to Los Angeles and then finally home to good old Daly City. Fact is they are expected to drive up to the home of Mrs. CLARA POKET at any moment and a more excited person you never did see. Can't say that I blame her as it has been almost a year since they left.

One and all will be very glad to hear that PHILIP LIBERTI of Winchester street has been much improved since his stay in the hospital and will be home soon. Fact is he should not only be home but back in school by the time this is being read. Welcome home Philip from all your neighbors and friends.

The ladies of the VFW Auxiliary No. 2044 have changed the day of their visit to the boys in the hospital at Palo Alto. Seems the ladies have been going on a Wednesday evening and now the boys have a TV set and of course the fights are on on Wednesdays. The ladies being the understanding gals that they are, cooperated and will now brighten the wards on a Thursday night.

The long expected has finally happened. Two little girls plus an automobile met in the intersection of Knowles avenue and Santa Barbara avenue last week. Fortunately the driver was going very slowly so neither of the two were hurt very much. Whose fault it was probably will never be fully determined but it could all be avoided if an officer was only there. That particular intersection is practically a highway and at certain times of the day no one is safe let alone children who are notorious for not watching what they are doing. They have all been told many times how to cross a street but they get to laughing and it just takes one car and one child at the right time to spell tragedy for someone.

The good weather really heightens the activities of the folks. A weenie roast at Rockaway Beach was held last Saturday night. Having the time of their lives at this gathering were MR. and MRS. MITCHELL STEWART, MR. and MRS. ROBERT MILLER, MR. and MRS. TONY HENSELY and MR. and MRS. DAN STEVENS. Naturally all the babies were left at home for the grandmas to play with. Wonder just who had the most fun—I'll bet on the grandmas.

HILLCREST CIRCLE No. 143 U.A.O.D. journeyed to Redwood City this week to put on the drill work for the official visit at Hacienda Circle U.A.O.D. MRS. CATHERINE FORMAN who is the team captain, took her girls and as usual a beautiful drill was presented by the team. Hillcrest Circle has long been noted for the precision with which the ladies drill and it is a pleasure to watch them.

Well, neighbors, another week and of course another column are finished. There is always something of interest to "your neighbors and mine" happening in this town of ours. All you have to do is let me know about it at the same old phone number—PL. 5-6482. Please try and get it in no later than Saturday to be in the next week's paper. Been lots of fun talking to all of you and I'll be hearing from you next week. 'Bye Now.

Northern Chapter ORT Will Hold Sabbath March 12

The Northern Peninsula Chapter will hold it's Ort Sabbath on Friday evening, March 12, at Congregation Bnai Israel, 67 Los Banos avenue, Daly City. Members of this chapter will be hostesses at the Oneg Shabat, or social hour following the service. All are invited to attend.

ORT day, the day set aside each year to mark the work and the achievements of the World Ort, (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) in its efforts to rehabilitate through vocational education, underprivileged and uprooted Jewish people, will be celebrated this year on March 10. Celebrative events will take place simultaneously in scores of cities across the length and breadth of the nation.

For over seventy years, the World Ort organization has provided tuition free vocational training for Jews. Through such training, it has freed thousands from dependence upon charity. Ort is now the largest private vocational training organization in the world. It maintains about 300 vocational training installations in 20 countries spanning 5 continents. It has the largest teaching staff servicing the largest student body of its kind. Today, the United States government has selected Ort as one of three or four vocational training agencies to rehabilitate Jewish and non-Jewish refugees from the Iron Curtain countries. Ort relieves the dire economic and social pressures upon the community, by making of its students, useful and productive citizens. Ort is a great humanitarian effort, restoring the dignity of the individual through the ecenomic security which it provides.

The four Ort chapters of Women's American Ort on the Peninsula, forming the Peninsula Region of Ort, have expanded and progressed this past year, and are looking forward to their coming year of greater achievements in supplying materials for Ort schools, and helping to feed, clothe, and provide mental and physical care for Ort students. These are the Southern Peninsula Chapter, Central, El Camino and Northern Peninsula.

Third and Fourth Grades
Miss Paynter, Teacher

Room Ten welcomed Carla Pelsinger back. Carla left us in November to attend school in San Francisco. She returned a couple of weeks ago and we're very happy to see her.

Other new pupils to join our class are Mary Mosgrove from New York and Carl Steigerwald from San Francisco.

Judy Mann, Mike Donley and Ricky Spector all celebrate their birthdays this month.

Fourth Grade
Mrs. Schober, Teacher

The Fourth Grade in Room 9 has just completed work on a very attractive mural showing many types of pre-historic animals in their natural habitat. This scene depicts the struggle for survival of some of the largest reptiles that have ever lived on the earth just as they were more than a hundred million years ago. The children all had a part in the construction of this mural and have thoroughly enjoyed the study of this period in our earth history. They are now beginning a study of the solar system, stars, and other astronomical phenomena. This will be an exciting study too. Already several projects are planned to accompany this unit of science work.

In arrithmetic, we have just completed our multiplication combinations. Now, we wish to improve ourselves in speed and accuracy. We have spent considerable time in analyzing the processes involved in solving two-step thought problems. These seem to be the most baffling type of arithmetic problem. However, we have found that with careful thought, they are not nearly as difficult as they seem.

Georgia Themelis and Billy Farber have entered our class. Georgia has transferred from Mrs. Lewis' class and Billy came from the Fredrick Burk school in San Francisco. We are glad to have both of them.

Third Grade, Mrs. Beber, Teacher

The many holidays that come in February have kept us busy. We have listened to stories about the lives of Lincoln and Washington and the children have written their own stories about these famous men.

The class valentine party given by our accomodating room mothers, Mrs. Sylvester and Mrs. Kirchman was thoroughly appreciated by all. The children enjoyed making many valentines for classmates, family and also our valentine tree.

Each child in the room has made a life size drawing and painting of himself which we have mounted on the wall.

We have learned another new folk dance called "Cshegobar."

In Social Studies, we have begun a new unit. We plan to study about transportation as a part of learning about our community in which we live.

Third Grade, Mrs. Lewis, Teacher

Everyone is certainly enjoying the letters and valentines which have been received from pen pals in the Third Grade of the Woodrow Wilson School. Bobby Stout is designing a stamp which the class will use on their letters that they write each week.

Our Valentine's Day party was a big success! Everyone had a grand time—thanks to our very cooperative room mothers, Mrs. Green and Mrs. Colangelo.

Our new unit in Social Studies is "Services of a Modern Community." We are planning to study about Transportation in the old days and now. Tony Thomas and Mark Biagi visited aboard a destroyer so they have many things to contribute toward our Transportation unit.

Bob Stout, Jack Hagopian, Jack Larson, Donald Green and Mark Mitchell have started a flower garden in our pation. They certainly keep the ground well watered and free of weeds!

Do your part to keep our highways clean. Carry a paper bag in your car for trash and refuse. When full, place it in roadside receptacles or in your trash can when you get home.

ALL PROGRAMS SUBJECT TO CHANGE ● NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR LAST MINUTE SCHEDULINGS

Sister Thanks FOE Auxiliary for Charity

Charter members and past presidents of the FOE Auxiliary No. 1848 have been reminded that next Tuesday's meeting will be held in their honor.

Madam President Jeane Blankenhorn requests the presence of this group.

An invitation is also extended to all members.

The Auxiliary recently shipped a box of bandages rolled by the members to a Leper colony.

The sewing club is starting the second box and are in need of old sheets as the supply is badly depleted.

Showing the appreciation of the Leper colony for the charity of the Auxiliary was a recent letter received by the Auxiliary.

It was from Sister M. Deviano, matron of Nsamby hospital, P. O. Box 246, Kampala, Uganda, BEA.

The sister, addressing the letter to Mary Voboril, said, "We are very grateful indeed for your very kind offer to make bandages for our hospitals.

"We should be very glad to have large ones for all our 22 missions in Uganda. We shall be unspeakably grateful to receive the fruits of your great kindness.

"May God and his Blessed Mother reward you all abundantly and shower his greatest blessing on your society."

"TELEVISION IS LIKE OPEN DOOR," TV DIRECTOR TELLS GEN. PERSHING PTA

"Television is like an open door to a whole world of new opportunities," William Dempsey, KPIX educational director, told General Pershing PTA Tuesday evening.

But how do you assist the child in making a good choice?" he added.

Dempsey went on to relate one mother's method of coping with this problem: After beginning to share some of her child's choice of programs, she suggested he share hers. Then she began to subtly criticize her program choice, the acting perhaps, or the plot. In time the child developed a critique of his programs. "This technique might not work as well in all cases," concluded Dempsey, after which he answered questions from the audience.

Preceding the talk there was a children's panel on TV, in which the children gave spontaneous and unrehearsed answers to questions on their likes and dislikes in TV and its varying effects on them. Mrs. Alice Bishop, second grade teacher, was moderator. Pupils on the panel were: Rose Marie Naylor, kindergarten; Toni Nemia, first grade; Margaret Noe and John Conacy, second grade; Nancy Hockaday and Carol Robertson, third grade. Carol was a last minute substitution for Ronald Anderson who was unable to come.

The children were awarded prizes for their performance, with the first prize going to Nancy Hockaday for giving the first correct answer to a pictorial puzzle quiz on TV programs.

The following officers selected by the nominating committee were unanimously elected for next term: Mrs. Robert Keith, president; Miss Winifred McGrath, honorary vice president; Mrs. Raymond Price, vice president; Mrs. George Naylor, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph Campbell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lawrence Yule, treasurer; Mrs. Gene Schmale, auditor; Mrs. James Blas, historian; Mrs. A. W. Robertson, parliamentarian.

Installation of officers will be at the April 6 meeting.

Mrs. Robertson, president, announced that the February bazaar netted approximately $150. Suggestion was made that the left-over needlework and white elephant articles be auctioned at the May meeting.

A community sing, led by Mr. William Tergis, past president of General Pershing PTA, followed by refreshments, concluded the meeting.

WATER SAFETY COURSE AT JEFFERSON HIGH SLATED TO BEGIN MONDAY NIGHT

A Water Safety Instructor course to include a total of thirty hours of training has been scheduled by the San Mateo county chapter, American Red Cross, according to an announcement made today by chapter officials.

Classes will be held at the Jefferson High school indoor pool in Daly City. The first fifteen hours are set for March 8, 11, 15, 17 and 19 from 7:30 to 10 p.m. This preliminary session will be taught by Charles Abbott of Burlingame, swimming director of the Peninsula Golf and Country Club and former director of aquatics at Central Branch of the YMCA in San Francisco, and Mike Orlich, physical education director for Jefferson High and Harold Fearon, water safety chairman, all accredited Red Cross Water Safety Instructors. The second fifteen hours are scheduled for March 22 through 26 from 7 to 10 p.m., under direction of Harold Terwilliger, Pacific Area Red Cross Field representative in Water Safety.

Those wishing to take the course must hold current senior life saving certificates and be over eighteen years of age. Registrations must be made through the Red Cross, 1449 Bellevue avenue, Burlingame, DI. 3-4561, before 5 p.m. March 5. There is no charge.

Those interested in Water Safety Instructor Review Course may register for the last weeks session starting March 22.

Negotiations are underway at present to expand the swim campaign program to include classes at both Carlmont High Pool in San Carlos and at South San Francisco High pool in that city in addition to classes already planned for Burlingame and San Mateo High pools.

This program which teaches Water Safety in all its phases, has grown from an enrollment of a little over 2000 in 1950 to nearly 10,000 last year. The Red Cross needs many more trained instructors, officials said, and all who can qualify are urged to register.

Anticipation Is High For Opening Of New Broadmoor Church

Anticipation is mounting high for the completion of the new place of worship for the Broadmoor Church of the Nazarene.

The Rev. L. W. Coey, pastor, announces that the congregation will be in the new church, to be located in Broadmoor, by Easter Sunday.

At that time, he said, a full schedule of events will be held in all departments.

At present the church is worshipping at 101 Vista Grande avenue, Daly City.

Schedule for this Sunday is as follows: 2 p.m., Sunday school for all ages and interests; 3 p.m., worship service.

Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock prayer service and Bible study will be held. The group is now studying in the Book of Isaiah.

This Sunday will be the final Sunday in the contest to determine who can bring in the most new scholars into the Sunday school. There will be a watch awarded to the winning boy and girl.

Last Sunday the scholars all gave an offering for beginning a brand new church to be started soon in the mountain town of Weeds, Calif.

Guest Speaker For Sunday At Grace Church Is Named

Guest speaker this Sunday at the Grace Presbyterian church will be Dr. Jacob Avery Long, vice president of the San Francisco theological seminary at San Anselmo.

His sermon topic will be "Possessing All Things," with Bible reading from the Book of First Corinthians 3:16—45.

He will speak at the morning worship service, beginning at 11 a.m.

The Grace church is located at Crocker and Winchester streets.

Missionary Group Makes Study Of Caribbean Islands

The Missionary society of the Broadmoor Church of the Nazarene is currently studying missionary work being done on the islands in the Caribbean.

Areas taken up to date have been Haiti, Trinidad, Barbados, and Cuba. Last Tuesday night the meeting was at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Coey, and the alabaster boxes were opened at this meeting.

The alabaster boxes are an offering box in which each one has their special offering to mission during meal times. Mrs. Stanley Webb presided at the meeting.

The Young People's group, under Mrs. Richard Whiteside, president, attended a zone rally Friday night in Palo Alto.

This rally carried an emphasis about the place a layman can fill in the church to be most effective in the work of the Lord.

Dr. Konrad Koosman At Lutheran Church

On Sunday Dr. Konrad Koosman will fill the pulpit as guest minister at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior, Junipero Serra & Garfield, San Francisco.

He is president of the California district of the American Lutheran church, of which the Savior church is a member. Services will take place at 10:45 a.m. instead of 11 a.m. o'clock, and Sunday school classes will be held at 9:30 a.m.

ITALIAN MISSION AT HOLY ANGELS CHURCH

San Vincenzo de Paoli Branch 19 of the Italian Catholic Federation is having an Italian mission at Holy Angels' church, Colma, from March 7 to 14.

MECHANICAL CHECK UPS

It may seem a bother to have thorough mechanical check ups made on your car at regular intervals, points out the National Automobile Club, but that seemingly wasted time will be repaid a thousandfold when an emergency occurs that requires split second action on the part of the driver, and precision response on the part of the car.

Mr. Przybyla's Room

All the students in our class have been waiting for our achievement tests and our report cards. We finally got them over with. They were not as bad as we thought they would be.

The girls in our class have made up a Volley-ball team for a tournament with other classes in the school. We are looking forward to lots of fun. May the best room win!

Miss Slater's Room

We have many interesting hobbies that we have been talking about in Miss Slater's room. Reed Price told us about his pigeons; John Bria told us about his trumpet; Diane Impeartrice brought her collection of autographs; Kenneth Moore told us about his camera; and Sanford Statner brought pictures. They told the whole class about their hobbies and showed them to us. I think that everyone should have a hobby.

Mrs. Shaffer's Room

Mrs. Shaffer's eighth grade class have been working very hard on Science folders. Each student has his own choice of material for his report. Some students are giving demonstration experiments in relation to their reports. Some of the topics include such fields of science as atomic energy, air and air pressure, geology and botany. Each student has one month's time to collect material on his report. Probably these reports and exhibits will be shown at Open House.

Some rocks and shells will be mounted and exhibited. Elaine Hiller is concentrating very hard on her rock collection. The class is having fun working on their reports.

Mrs. Ross' Room

Each month our class must read a book and then make a report from it. This month there were many interesting books. Some of them were "The Jacksons of Tennessee," "Winter At Valley Forge," "Eight Cousins," "Heidi Grows Up," "Three's A Crowd," "Beautiful Joe's Paradise," "Summer Date," "The Story of Marco Polo," and many others.

If you watch the Les Malloy show you probably saw two girls doing an acrobatic dance. They were Barbara Mattes, of our room, and Carol Dallas. Barbara has danced for us at our Christmas party, and I must say she is very good.

Thursday, February 11, we visited Mrs. Shaffer's room to see two movies. "Old Hickory," a story about Andrew Jackson, and the movie "Huckleberry Finn."

Mrs. Harkness' Class
Room 4, P.M., 7th Grade

Recently our class has been studying per cent. As most of you know, per cent means hundred, and there are three forms of hundreds. These three forms are fraction, decimals and per cent. Each of these three forms are classed by themselves.

The fraction is the most common; it can be used with any denominator whether large or small. The fraction does a great deal of work as would a farmer, miner or any other laborer.

There is also the decimal; it represents the middle class. This one is just a little bit choosey about his denominator. It must be ten or a power of ten. This is often preferred to a fraction for working as a per cent problem.

Last, but not least, we have the high and mighty per cent. He is so grand that he never wants to work. He just lets fractions and decimals do all his work and he is so fussy that his denominator is always a hundred.

Now you have met all the hundreds, their forms, and situations. I hope to have shown you that per cent means hundred.

Our class is becoming accomplished at square dancing. We have learned to do "Pop Goes the Weasel!"

We are also very interested in the governmental procedure of our country and are watching the daily papers for events taking place in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Tolle, the art teacher, is teaching us how to draw with charcoal. It is very interesting because you may erase if you make a mistake.

The class has begun to read the book "Into Your Teens." It explains the ways of growing up physically, socially, and emotionally. The book tells how to get acquainted in a new place and how to make friends. We are earnestly discussing it.

Everyone in our class is writing a book about the Middle Ages. This was a very interesting and romantic time. Our book will be ten chapters long and in it we will have pictures of castles and knights.

Becoming a knight in the Middle Ages was not very easy; you first became a Page at the age of seven. Then at fourteen or fifteen he became a Squire, and to finally become a Knight he must do a brave deed for the King.

Ridgely Cummings Reports

ANGEL WITHOUT WINGS

If I were a millionaire I'd probably be down on all the sucker lists as a backer of plays.

For I am enamoured of the theatre, the smells and the drafts backstage, the way one's voice reverberates over the empty seats, the paintings of flats and hammering of seats accompanied by jokes and laughter, the sense of power that comes over one as pushes the big handle that gradually dims the house lights and then the feeling of creation as one throws the little switches for the spots and footlights.

Striding or Creeping

I enjoy watching an actor read his part gingerly at first, then with more and more confidence as rehearsals proceed, until by opening night he is striding or creeping about as his part dictates, completely lost in the character he is playing. But never so lost that he forgets to maneuver for an upstage position, where the audience will see his face and figure to best advantage.

For me it is a pleasure to watch an astute director juggle the figures on stage for balance and design, working to achieve a fluid poetry of motion in keeping with the mood of the play. I admire the skill he uses to take a simple sentence and give it smashing impact by a combination of gestures, stance and the reaction of those others on stage at the moment of delivery.

Like Lots Of Things

There are a lot of things I like about the theatre and periodically I seem to find myself involved in putting on a play, probably because there is something in each of us that leads us to do the things we really want to do, even when the odds are all against it and the desire seems better scrapped for more practical projects.

Last year my dramatic project was a comedy, "See My Lawyer," written by Harry Clork and Richard Maibaum. I was reminded of it the other night when I saw a third grade musical called "Painting the Clouds with Sunshine," put out by Warner Brothers. Harry Clork was listed as one of the three scenarists responsible for this turkey and his name on the screen reminded me of all the headaches Joe Van Winkle and I had getting his earlier and better opus on stage.

Made Headlights

"See My Lawyer" made local headlines when one of our cast was arrested. He identified himself as a Hollywood actor and then, when asked further questions, quoted the title of the play, not neglecting to give the address of the theatre. That one ran a month and several of the cast got breaks from it. One girl was signed to do television commercials for an airline and I've never seen her since, for I exercise a rigorous boycott on TV, believing with Robert Hutchins that its pernicious influence may eventually turn us into vegetables. Hutchins tells a story which seems worth repeating here even though it's aside from my topic. Seems an astronomer came to him with some photographs which indicated there might be a low form of moss-like vegetable life on Mars and asked the educator if he could think of any possible explanation. Certainly, replied Hutchins. At one time Mars was inhabited by beings much like us. But millions of years ago they had the misfortune to invent television.

To resume, a number of last year's cast got TV and motion picture work, though none of them has since become famous. If they ever do, I'll write a series of articles titled "I Knew Them When" and my fortune will be made.

A Pungent Drama

This year the play I've been associated with is Arthur Miller's "All My Sons." This is a pungent drama dealing with the evils of war-profiteering and I should hasten to add that I'm not the angel and that my association has been in a strictly minor capacity. I mention this in case the people who put up the money should stumble across these words and sue me for grabbing the glory without playing the bills.

It was in 1947 that Arthur Miller wrote this play about the breakup of a close-knit family. It played on Broadway, a movie was made from it, and it was released in printed form.

Six years passed and I had not seen the play or read it or seen the movie or even happened to read a review of the film. Up until December of 1953 the title was just three poetic words to me, just another of the many dramatic works whose title I've heard bandied about but never found time to read or see.

Part of My Life

Two months later the play was a part of my life and thought. I could recite long passages of it by heart and the ten characters in the cast were old acquaintances, definite personalities well and truly known, and somehow closely bound up with the people who played the parts.

That's what happens when one starts producing something for the stage. And that's one reason why a playwright often has a great difficulty in getting his play produced.

With a novel or a short story, you read it once and either like it or don't. But a play being readied for production is something you live with. You practically marry the author, even if, like Arthur Miller, he is not around but has gone on to write better plays like "Death of a Salesman." His words become a part of your life.

Really So Eloquent?

If the play's no good the cast and director will be heartily sick of it long before the curtain rises on opening night. And even with good plays the hard work and constant repetition of the lines make one begin to wonder if these speeches are really so eloquent and honest and moving after all. Doubt creeps in and you continue mostly out of desire to capitalize on the investment already made, or in hope of recognition and future opportunities, or, more usually, from sheer stubborness and obstinacy. Not to mention two other factors, one, a faith in your initial reaction on first reading, months previous, that the play was worth the effort, and two, that you're doing what you want to do.

My connection with "All My Sons" came about, as do so many things in Hollywood, purely by chance. Or call it Kismet. Or fate.

One Sunday afternoon I ran into an old friend, an actor named Pat Martin. I hadn't seen much of Pat lately and now I learned the reason. He was rehearsing the leading role in the Arthur Miller play. Since he worked from midnight to 8 a.m. and had to spend a few hours sleeping, this left him little time for socializing.

Great Expectations

At Pat's urging I attended the Sunday afternoon rehearsal with him. En route there he briefed me on the new drama group which was putting on the play. Pat thought there might be money behind the group. He confided that they needed a publicity man and quite possibly would be able to pay for such services. I began dreaming of an expense account, lunches at the Brown Derby with hungry drama editors of the dailies (who are fairly well paid but have so many hostages to fortune in the form of wives, ex-wives, children, mortgages, car payments and traffic tickets that they are usually broke), a new tailor-made tweed sport coat, perhaps even a down

Ten minutes talk with the producer and the director deflated my dreams, for it took only that long to persuade me that they had neither money nor experience but only hope.

But I didn't spend the ten minutes with them until after I was hooked by the play. How that happened would take too long to tell in the available space so I'll resume this topic in a future essay. Don't miss it if you can.

Red Cross Budget Smaller For Year

Despite increased demands for its services, the San Mateo County chapter, American Red Cross, submitted to the Crusade last Fall, a budget slightly less than the previous year's figure. This statement was made today by Mrs. Henry Bostwick, Jr., Chairman of the which is working on plans to raise, Membership Fund Committee which is working on plans to raise, concurrently with the National Red Cross campaign in March, $29,526.95.

"This amount is the difference between $105,078.05 raised through the Crusade and the Chapter's budget of $134,605," Mrs. Bostwick said. "We must send the National organization approximately $41,000 to support its National Blood Program, Disaster Relief, services to the Armed Forces at home and abroad, etc.

Locally, our Chapter maintains 12 vital public services including an active disaster preparedness program, a Water Safety program involving over 9,000 children and adults, a First Aid training program for police and fire departments, bus drivers, plant employees and the public, home nursing classes to train expectant mothers and fathers in proper care of their new-born infants, and the general public in home care of the sick, 24-hour-a-day counseling service for and financial aid to servicemen, veterans and their families, a Junior Red Cross program in the schools and many others." These services, Mrs. Bostwick said, affect either directly or indirectly, every resident of the Chapter area.

Jeff Cagers Drop PAL Title Tilt

NO VICTORY DANCE FOR INDIANS AS MUSTANGS ROMP TO 56-45 DECISION

The long season told on Jefferson high school's varsity basketball squad Tuesday as they were caught napping by Capuchino and dropped a 56-45 playoff contest which cost them the 1954 Northern Division Peninsula Athletic league crown.

"Playing their worst game of the year," as Coach Mike Orlich put it, the usually keen-functioning Jeffs could never get in the lead and lagged badly in the fourth quarter to lose by the largest margins over them all season.

It was 12-10, Mustangs favor, at the first quarter's end, and appeared like more of a contest at half-time, with Capuchino holding a thin 23-22 advantage.

In the third canto the Mustangs moved away, 42 to 33, and it was disaster from there on out for the Indians.

Delbon Hits 19

High scoring Forward Don Delbon mustered 19 points, high for the evening, and Center John Madden got 9, but none of their teammates could amass more than 5 markers.

A win by the Jeffs would have given them their second straight league title and a chance to meet Palo Alto in the intersection game Saturday night.

Just a week ago Tuesday, the Indians had handily taken the measure of the Caps, 53 to 43, to wind up in a tie for first with the Mustangs.

The second game of the three-game playoffs between Capuchino and Palo Alto, southern division PAL champ, will be held Saturday night at the Jefferson gym.

30s Duplicate

Coincidentally, the 30s divisional play-off will include the same two schools. The lightweight contest is scheduled to begin at 7:30 at the local pavilion. The varsity contest will follow.

First game of the championship series will be played at Palo Alto.

Admission is $1 for general, 50 cents for student body card holders.

As for Tuesday's game, Coach Orlich didn't have too much to say. "They tried, but their teamwork wasn't quite up to snuff," he said.

The Long Season

"Maybe it was the long season and the sunny weather, I don't know, speculated. "All I know is that most of the coaches said we should have won. Palo Alto was all smiles because they don't have to meet us in the north-south playoffs."

In Friday's traditional tilt with South San Francisco, Jefferson was at their usual best.

They smothered the rivals, 57 to 38, hardly working up a sweat. Delbon was again good for 19 points, while Ray Rosa snared 12 and Tom Costello got 8.

Finish With Flourish

Coach Tony Giammona's lightweights did their "good deed" for the day by knocking the South City lights out of contention for the league title, 35 to 33.

Three free throws in the last 40 seconds by Guard Bill Curtis gave the little Indians the needed margin. Curtis got an 11 total for the night to lead the Jeffs, while Al Lagomarsino netted 10 to finish runner-up.

The win gave the 30s a respectable standing of tie for second in final league tabulation. They shared runner-up spot with South City, each with 9-3 marks. The Warriors needed a win Friday to gain a tie for first with Capuchino's lights. Capuchino lights wound up with a 10-2 mark to capture the crown.

SILVESTRI AND HANSON GAIN IN SF CITY GOLF

Daly City's Bob Silvestri, 1952 state amateur golf champ, had his sights set on more laurels this week as he handily disposed of a pair of opponents in the opening round of the San Francisco City Golf Championship.

Silvestri vied with George Frazer, Meadow club star, in the upper bracket opening round, and won, 3-2. The next day he was pitted against Grant Spaeth, who he dispatched with ease, 5 and 4.

Sharp Park's Lido Landi pulled off a win Saturday in lower bracket play, edging Lloyd Rossi, 1 up.

He returned Sunday to decision Alf Burtleson of Alameda, 6 and 5.

Einar Hanson of Daly City went all the way last weekend in lower bracket play by topping Ed Jones, 4 and 2, Saturday, and returning Sunday with a 3 and 1 win over B. Corvi.

Sarto A.C. Drops Billiards, 18 to 7

Sarto A.C. came back into the baseball picture last week end and showed a lot of hustle in downing Johnnie's Billiards, 18 to 7.

Big seven-run pushes in the third and sixth innings squashed any hopes the billiard boys had of rallying.

In six innings, Sarto's Coburn struck out 11, walked two and allowed six hits.

Lowell Creighton struck out three, walked one and allowed three hits in his stand on the mound for Sarto.

COLMA GETS BACK AT OLPH, 18 to 16; BRISBANE STILL TOPS "A" LEAGUE PLAY

Colma evened things up with OLPH by defeating them 18 to 16 in the northern county league game last Saturday. Led by Gene Premici's 8 points, the Colmans fought off a desperate last minute drive by OLPH to even up the series between the two.

Brisbane displayed some outstanding ball control to stop Sharp Park 20 to 12. Toodles Wallace was high for Brisbane with 6 points while Barry White hit 5 for Sharp Park.

In the B battles, leading Scorer Steve Opperman of Westlake stretched his lead with a 27 point output. Steve has now averaged 14 points per game. Westlake by the way, defeated Colma 48-19.

Daly City walked over OLPH 38-12 after a slow start. The score was 8 to 7 at the end of the first half. A 17-point average by Don Burley in the second half helped Daly City pull away from OLPH.

League leading Sharp Park won another, defeating Brisbane 23 to 14. A 12-point output by Marvin Wise was the difference.

Next Saturday will end the B schedule if Sharp Park can get over strong Daly City. If they lose, they will go into a 3-way tie for first place with Daly City and Westlake and a playoff will be necessary.

Saturday's schedule finds Sharp Park vs. Daly City, and Brisbane vs. Colma in the A league. In the B league Westlake meets OLPH, Colma meets Brisbane and Sharp Park and Daly City meet for the championship.
